

BAY AREA HOSPITAL ROUNDTABLE ON ELECTRONICS

A Discussion of Environmentally Preferable Purchasing, Management and Disposal Options for Electronics

Kaiser Permanente-The Ordway Building- I Kaiser Plaza
22nd Floor, Multi-Purpose Room
Oakland-BART Accessible (19th Street Station)

October 24, 2007

---

- 8:30-9:00 Continental Breakfast and Informal Networking
- 9:00-10:25
- Welcome, Introductions and Sharing of Survey Results
  - An Overview of the Environmental and Human Health Problems Associated with the Lifecycle of Electronics
- Speaker: Sue Chiang, Pollution Prevention Director, Center for Environmental Health
- Existing Tools and Resources for Purchasing and Disposal Decisions
- Speaker: Sue Chiang, Pollution Prevention Director, Center for Environmental Health
- 10:25-10:30
- Reusable Transport Packaging: Current Initiatives
- Speaker: Jeffery Liang, Environmental Scientist, The StopWaste Partnership
- 10:30-10:45 BREAK
- 10:45-11:10
- Energy Savings Ideas and Alternative and Emerging Technologies
- Speakers: Alex Chase, Program Manager II, Energy Solutions, Inc. Mohammad Yazdi, PG&E, Sr. Program Manager, Health Care Segment
- 11:10-11:55
- Sharing of Successes and Challenges
A variety of local Bay Area hospitals will share their successes and lessons learned. All are encouraged to share challenges and potential solutions.
- 11:55-Noon
- Roundtable Evaluation

528 61st Street, Suite A. Oakland, CA 94609.
(510) 594-9864 www.cehca.org

Sponsored by the Center for Environmental Health and Health Care Without Harm